Our Campus

We, the Senior Class of 1963, proudly dedicate this yearbook with rich affection, sincerity, and respect to Mrs. Merle Little, whose interest in, devotion to, and understanding of all our adolescent ways and undertakings have guided us to a successful graduation, and to a hopeful and promising future. For her thoughtfulness and friendliness, the Senior Class will be forever grateful. To her, we dedicate our 1963 TIGER.

Some things in life become more precious as we live with them. The TIGER will probably be one of those things.

This annual records the pictures, the events, the organizations, and the spirit of this year at Bay High School. I hope you have enjoyed as much as I have the privilege of being permitted to work here. My association with the faculty and student body has been most pleasant and worthwhile. As the years go by you will enjoy looking at this annual recalling your experiences here, renewing acquaintances with friends, and living again those events which the years ahead will endow with the highlights of reflection.

Through the years, this message brings you hope, faith, inspiration, and best wishes.

As we come to the end of another year, the seniors will begin to look back and think of the many wonderful experiences they have enjoyed here at Bay High. Unfortunately, several of them will begin to think of the things they have failed to learn in high school because of wasted or misused time. Those of you in this group could do a really good deed before leaving. Talk to some of the underclassmen; tell them the importance of learning everything possible while the opportunity is present.

Finally, may I wish you, the Senior Class of 1963, all the happiness and prosperity possible in your future endeavors.
